SCHEDULE 1

Project Description

The objective of the Project is to prevent, detect, and respond to the threat posed by the COVID-19 pandemic and strengthen national systems for public health preparedness in Georgia.

The Project is a part of the MPA Program and consists of the following parts:

Part 1: Emergency COVID-19 Response

Assistance in the provision of urgent efforts to slow down and limit the spread of COVID-19 through:

(a) supporting Georgia’s health sector by strengthening disease surveillance systems and epidemiological capacities of selected public health laboratories to facilitate early detection and confirmation of COVID-19 cases by increasing overall testing capacity and expanding the availability of critical medical supplies and equipment; and

(b) strengthening the preparedness planning and clinical care capacity of Georgia’s health systems through \textit{inter alia}, establishing specialized care units, increasing availability of isolation facilities, increasing availability of critical medical supplies, equipment, and other related goods, and mobilizing additional resources to public and private health care facilities for effective management of cases including non-severe cases and ensuring readiness for forthcoming COVID-19 cases and treatment.

Part 2: Enabling Health Measures to Contain the COVID-19 Outbreak Through Temporary Income Support for Poor Households and Vulnerable Individuals

Assistance in the provision of social assistance and financial support to households and individuals affected directly or indirectly by COVID-19, through:

(a) providing financial assistance, in addition to the expansion of the assistance provided by the Targeted Social Assistance Program to additional poor and vulnerable households; and

(b) providing temporary financial assistance to selected Formal Workers and Self-Employed Persons, whose employment is directly or indirectly affected due to the measures adopted to contain the COVID-19 pandemic and who are not otherwise covered by other social protection programs.
Part 3: Project Management and Monitoring

Carrying out Project management activities, including carrying out the following: (a) financial management and procurement requirements; (b) monitoring and evaluation activities related to the Project including inter alia monitoring, impact evaluation assessments, data collection, and spot checks of the provision of financial assistance; and (c) other tasks related to overall administration, procurement, financial management, environmental and social aspects, and communication and outreach.
